

Dr. David McKenzie Bio

Dr. David McKenzie is a dedicated Atlantic Union Conference administrator, an anointed preacher of righteousness, counselor, author, educator, and international evangelist whose ministry is deeply rooted in prayer.

Profoundly devoted to communion with God, Dr. McKenzie is the founder of the Atlantic Union Conference PUSH Prayer Line, which has been in continuous operation for more than six years (as of 2020). This initiative was birthed out of his firm conviction that prayer fuels revival and advances God's mission.

He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Theology, a Master of Divinity (eq.), a Master of Counseling, a Doctor of Ministry in Leadership, and a PhD in Educational Administration and Management. These credentials reflect his deep commitment to both spiritual formation and academic excellence.

With more than twenty six years of pastoral ministry, Dr. McKenzie has faithfully served congregations in the Guyana Conference of SDA, South America and in the Northeastern Conference of SDA, United States, where he also provided impactful leadership as Conference Youth Director. He previously served as Atlantic Union Youth Director and Vice President.

Currently, Dr. McKenzie serves as Executive Secretary and Assistant to the President for Mission and Evangelism of the Atlantic Union Conference.

He ministers alongside his wife and partner in ministry, Dr. Bernice Quashie McKenzie, and together they are the proud parents of a young adult son and a teenage daughter.

His heart beats for souls, and his driving passion is to see the Kingdom of Heaven enlarged. Simply put, Dr. McKenzie is God's servant on a mission. He humbly invites your continued prayers as he serves.
